Your Rights

You have the right to request a restriction on how we use, and with whom we share, your health information for treatment, payment, and administrative activities.

- Atrium Health is not required to agree to a restriction. (With certain exceptions exceptions)
- No restriction is effective until you receive written confirmation from Atrium Health.
- If we agree to a restriction, the restriction will be effective for the current specific patient visit or encounter specified and for future treatment, payment, or administrative activities.
- In the event of an emergency situation, restriction agreements will not apply.
- You may ask us at any time to end this restriction by telling us verbally or putting it in writing.
- We may end our agreement to the restriction by informing you in writing. This will only affect health information created or received after we have so informed you.
