

REQUEST FOR APPLICATIONS

Leadership Fellowship Program

Presented by Community and Stakeholder Research Engagement (C&SE) Program

Are you interested in leveraging your unique strengths and further developing your leadership skills while strengthening strategies that build meaningful partnerships between research, community-driven programs and the populations we serve? Then start your leadership journey and empowerment of communities here at the CTSI-Community Stakeholder Research Engagement (C&SE) Program.

Details:

- ✓ Assists with the planning, development, implementation, and evaluation of, and writing and dissemination of findings from C&SE initiatives.
- ✓ Combines research management and academic research skills.
- ✓ Requires the use of judgment and discretion in performing the assigned duties and responsibilities related to the C&SE.
- ✓ Includes compensation equivalent to 1% effort.

Who Can Apply?

- ✓ Faculty appointment at Wake Forest University School of Medicine or Atrium Health.
- ✓ Applicants are required to be a MD/DO Researcher or hold a PhD degree, with a minimum of two years of relevant research experience while possessing strong communication and computer skills, scientific expertise, and a letter of recommendation.

Application Deadline:
Sunday, November 30th
by 11:59PM ET (10:59PM CT)

APPLY NOW