SECTION I: GENERAL INFORMATION

History & Characteristics

Cabarrus College is a private independent college whose mission is to provide progressive, exemplary healthcare education. The College is an unincorporated operating division of Atrium Health (formerly Carolinas HealthCare System) and is part of Atrium Health Cabarrus located in Concord, North Carolina. The College fulfills its mission through its commitment to academic excellence, student success, employee engagement, institutional effectiveness, performance excellence, and benefit to the community.

Cabarrus College of Health Sciences' roots began in 1942 as a hospital-based 3-year training program for nurses in Cabarrus County. In 1963 it was accredited by the National League for Nursing and in 1973 became North Carolina's first 24-month hospital-based diploma program. In 1988, the North Carolina General Assembly granted the School of Nursing the authority to award its graduates a 2-year Associate in Science degree. The School began to expand and in 1995 received its initial accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC). In January 1996, the institution changed its name to Cabarrus College of Health Sciences and in 1998, the College was granted authority by the North Carolina General Assembly to award baccalaureate degrees. Regional accreditation at this higher level was affirmed in December 2000. SACSCOC granted approval for the College's first online program in 2011. In January 2014, SACSCOC approved Level III membership with the addition of the Master of Occupational Therapy program. Today, the college offers two diploma, three certificate, five associate, three baccalaureate and one master's degree programs.

Cabarrus College has a unique environment that cultivates and nurtures talent, shaping graduates into caring, committed healthcare professionals with a passion for making a difference. From the very first day, students are immersed in a state-of-the-art environment that embodies excellence and provides ongoing, real-life clinical experiences. Graduates of Cabarrus College boast 90+ percent pass rates on licensure and certification examinations, exceeding both state and national averages. Although admission policy states that the priority admissions deadlines are February 1 for fall semester and October 1 for spring semester, applications are accepted after priority deadlines until a program is full.
